Jude 5-19

Thriving In a Chaotic World: When Corruption Becomes Normal

Rebellion and God's Justice (Jude 5-10).

"But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively" (Jude 10).

Jesus said, "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?" (Luke 6:46).

Rebels without a clue (Jude 11-13).

"Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error and perished in Korah's rebellion" (Jude 11).

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 7:21).

Understanding the past helps us live into the future (Jude 14-16).

"Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His holy ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness..." (Jude 14b-15a).

"But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you" (Matthew 6:33).

Corrupt teachers distort the Good News, yet the Good News overcomes (Jude 17-19).

"But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Jude 17).

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves" (Mathew 7:15).
