Psalm 111

Oh, Magnify the Lord: Why We Worship the Lord

I worship God as part of a community (Psalm 111:1-2).

“Praise the Lord! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation” (Psalm 111:1).

“And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near” (Hebrews 10:24-25).

The God of my salvation is with us (Psalm 111:3-6).

“He has caused His wondrous works to be remembered...He remembers His covenant forever” (Psalm 111:4a and 5b).

“Now there are also many other things that Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written” (John 21:25).

God brings justice, faith, and wisdom to His people (Psalm 111:7-10).

“The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy; they are established forever and ever...” (Psalm 111:7-8a).

“Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is” (Ephesians 5:15-17).
