Psalm 124

Oh, Magnify the Lord: Why We Always Worship the Lord

In the face of overwhelming evil, we always worship the Lord (Psalm 124:1-5).

“If it had not been the Lord who was on our side...” (Psalm 124:1a).

“What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?...No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 8:31, 37-39).

When we are free in Jesus, we always worship the Lord (Psalm 124:6-7).

“Blessed be the Lord...the snare is broken, and we have escaped!” (Psalm 124:6a, 7b).

“So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed” (John 8:36).

Knowing that our God is sovereign, we always worship the Lord (Psalm 124:8).

“Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth” (Psalm 124:8).

“For I know that my Redeemer lives, and at the last He will stand upon the earth” (Job 19:25).

“But Jesus looked at them and said, ‘With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible’” (Matthew 19:26).

Psalm 124
Our help is in the name of the LORD, Maker
of Heaven and Earth.
