Luke 2:8-20

The Original Songs of Christmas: A Song of Peace

Shepherds and the glory of the Lord? That ain't right! (Luke 2:8-11)

“And an angel of the Lord appeared to [the shepherds], and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear” (Luke 2:9).

“And [the Lord] said, ‘I will make all my goodness pass before you...But,’ He said, ‘you cannot see my face, for man shall not see me and live’” (Exodus 33:19-20).

A Declaration of Care and Commitment (Luke 2:12-14)

“‘And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.’ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God...” (Luke 2:12-13).

“For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9:6).

Go, see, tell, glorify, and praise! (Luke 2:15-20)

“When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, ‘Let us go...’” (Luke 2:15).

“God, to show that He respected not persons, revealed this grand mystery to the shepherds and the wise men; the one poor, the other rich; the one learned, the other unlearned; the one Jesus, the other Gentiles; the one near, the other far off” (John Trapp, 17th century theologian).
