Luke 2:1-7 and Galatians 4:4-7
Home for the Holidays: When Christ Arrived

Christmas is very big and very small!

“In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered” (Luke 2:1).

“And while they were [in Bethlehem], the time came for her to give birth. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn” (Luke 2:6-7).

Christmas is when Christ arrived.

“But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ‘Abba! Father!’ So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God” (Galatians 4:4-7).

“The Baby is what it was all about. If he had not grown up to become the Jesus Christ of the New Testament, we would never even have heard of the story of Christmas, despite its beauty, simplicity and wonder. But something began at the Nativity which has never ended. The infant would change history, wrench the world’s chronology so that its years would pivot about his birth, and touch countries, cultures, civilizations, and untold hundreds of millions of lives”
(Paul L. Maier, First Christmas).

IS BORN
