Shining Brightly: The Renown of God
Psalm 105:1; Proverbs 11:30; Isaiah 6:8; John 3:16-17

Make God known by His Deeds

*“Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon His name; make known His deeds among the peoples!”
(Psalm 105:1).*

“We make the glory of God known to all, not when we share our experiences, but when we serve as heralds of God’s good tiding” (Alexander Maclaren).

Live a Life that Overflows with the Life of God

“The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and whoever captures souls is wise” (Proverbs 11:30).

“The fruit of the righteous – that is to say his life – grows out of the believer... We all need a faith which can live either in a wilderness, or in a crowd; a faith which will show itself in every walk of life, and in every company” (Charles Spurgeon).

Live for God, NOW!

“And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ Then I said, ‘Here I am! Send me’” (Isaiah 6:8).

“The burning coal was to intimate the divine... therefore all purity flows from God”
(John Calvin).

Live for the one who gave and redeemed life!

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him” (John 3:16-17).

“There are no two sentences which more fully sum up the message of the Bible than these. Here the limitless love of God overcomes the limitless sin of humanity. Here God’s best overwhelmed and raised up those who otherwise would be lost forever” (F. F. Bruce).

John 3:16
