Jesus Gives a Foundation for Life
Mark 12:1-12

In our world of takers, Jesus gives. This Lenten Season let us be renewed in our faith by walking with Jesus, through the Gospel of Mark, from the Triumphal Entry through the Resurrection, and rediscover how in this world where everyone takes, Jesus gives us all!

Just Who Is In Charge Here? 12:1-9

Owner of the vineyard, “A man planted...” (Mark 12:1).

Vineyard, “...a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a pit for the winepress and built a tower...” (Mark 12:1).

“The modern church is producing passionate people with empty heads who love the Jesus they don’t know very well” (Voddie Baucham).

Tenants, “...and leased it to tenants...” (Mark 12:1).

Servants, “When the season came, he sent a servant...” (Mark 12:2).

Son, “He had still one other, a beloved son...” (Mark 12:6).

“If you do not hear the wellbeloved Son of God, you have refused your last hope. He is God’s ultimatum. Nothing remains when Christ is refused. No one else can be sent; heaven itself contains no further messenger. If Christ be rejected, hope is rejected” (Charles Spurgeon).

The Only Future is Living for God Now 12:10-12

“Have you not read this Scripture: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord’s doing and it is marvelous in our eyes’?”
(Mark 12:10; Psalm 118:22-23).

“Whatever may be the contrivances of humanity, God has at the same time declared, that in setting up the kingdom of Christ, His power will be victorious” (John Calvin).
