Mark 1:16-20

The Way of the Savior: The Way of A Call

Jesus call us with a sense of urgency and an unexpectedness.

*“And Jesus said to them, ‘Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men’”
(Mark 1:17).*

“There is a common, worldly kind of Christianity in this day, which many have, and think they have enough – a cheap Christianity which offends nobody, and requires no sacrifice – which costs nothing, and is worth nothing” (J. C. Ryle)

Jesus calls us to follow Him with the entirety of our lives.

“We never grow closer to God when we just live life. It takes deliberate pursuit and attentiveness” (Francis Chan).

Jesus calls us to obedience.

“And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed Him” (Mark 1:20).

“He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lakeside, he came to those men who knew Him not. He speaks to us the same word: “Follow thou me!” and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands. And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience Who He is” (Albert Schweitzer, The Quest for the Historical Jesus, p. 40).
