Revelation 2:18-29

Becoming Jesus People: The Necessity of Doing Right for the Right Reasons

You know me and I know you (Revelation 2:18-19).

“I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first” (Revelation 2:19).

“And upward from what had the appearance of his waist I saw as it were gleaming metal, like the appearance of fire enclosed all around. And downward from what had the appearance of his waist I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him” (Ezekiel 1:27).

Evil cannot be tolerated in the family of faith and has dire consequences (Revelation 2:20-24).

*“But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel...”
(Revelation 2:20).*

*“Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life”
(Galatians 6:7-8).*

Good done for the glory of God changes and rebuilds lives (Revelation 2:25-29).

*“Only hold fast what you have until I come. The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations”
(Revelation 2:25-26).*

“Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain” (1 Corinthians 15:58).
