What the Bible Says About the Judgment of the Child of God in Christ

Romans 14:1-12

Why does the judgment matter?

“God has put eternity in man’s heart” (Ecclesiastes 3:11).

Backing up and taking a running start!

“Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord” (2 Corinthians 5:8).

“...to live is Christ and to die is gain” (Philippians 1:21).

“...we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet, for the trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised imperishable and we shall be changed” (1 Corinthians 15:51-52).

Answering the specific question, “What the Bible says about the judgment of the child of God in Christ?”

“...but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God” (Romans 5:8-9).

“There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus” (Romans 8:1).

The judgment for the child of God in Christ.

1. “For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God...” (Romans 14:10b).

2. “So then each of us will give an account of himself to God” (14:12).

3. “And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment” (Hebrews 9:27).

4. “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil” (2 Corinthians 5:10).

“For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done” (Matthew 16:27).

“Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done” (Revelation 22:12).

It is written:
"As surely
as I live,
says the Lord, every knee will bow before Me; every tongue will confess to God." Romans 14:11
