A Word For A Restless Age: Lying Prophets
Jeremiah 14:13-16; 23:9-32

Peace Lies That Perish (Jeremiah 14:13-14; 23:16-17)

“And the LORD said to me: ‘The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds’” (Jeremiah 14:14).

“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits... Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire” (Matthew 7:15-20).

When Dreams Replace the Word (Jeremiah 23:9-14, 17, 25-28)

“Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let him who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? declares the LORD” (Jeremiah 23:28).

“And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ... So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God... ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men’” (Matthew 15:3, 6-9).

No One Gets Away with a Lie (Jeremiah 14:15-16; 23:30-32)

“Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, declares the LORD, who steal my words from one another. Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams... and who tell them and lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness... I will bring upon them disaster” (Jeremiah 23:30-32).

“Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops” (Luke 12:2-3).
