March 1, 2026
Second Sunday in Lent
Parables of the Kingdom (Matthew 13:1-58)

The Spirit's Work in Prepared Soil: The Sower (Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23)

“When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path... As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty”
(Matthew 13:19, 23).

“But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear” (Matthew 13:16).

Your Opportunity to Shine: Weeds Among Wheat (Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43)

“Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear” (Matthew 13:43).

The Kingdom Explodes: Mustard Seed and Leaven (Matthew 13:31-33)

“The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard...It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown is larger than all the garden plants...is like leaven...” (Matthew 13:31-33).

The Joyous Price of Love: Treasure and Pearl (Matthew 13:44-46)

“...Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field...on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it” (Matthew 13:44-46).

The Pain of Not Knowing What You Have: The Net, Scribe, and Rejection
(Matthew 13:47-58)

“...for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old... And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household’” (Matthew 13:52, 57).
