O worship the King, all glo - rious a - bove,

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days,

His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,

Thy bountiful care, what tongue can re - cite?

And sweetly dis - tills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and fee - ble as frail,

In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;

Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,

Our Maker, De - fender, Re - deemer, and Friend
